New Delhi, 15th January 2015

PFS registers 86% growth in interest income during nine months ended 31st December 2014

PTC India Financial Services Limited (PFS) reported its financial results for the quarter and nine months ended 31st December 2014

Commenting on the performance for Q3 & 9M FY2015, Mr. R. M. Malla - Managing Director & CEO said:

“The growth momentum has continued during the quarter. Our interest income has grown by over 73% during the quarter compared to the interest income during the corresponding quarter in the previous year. We have been more focused on lending to renewable energy projects, which has been a key thrust area for the country. Going forward, we are hopeful of maintaining current growth rates as a combination of suitable investment climate, capacity addition especially in renewable energy, policy support and falling interest rates push up demand for funds from power sector, especially renewable energy sector.”
